

Kucinich Subcommittee to Hold Second Hearing to Examine the Environmental Effects of Genetically Engineered Organisms and USDA Policy

Washington D.C. (September 22, 2010) -- Chairman Dennis Kucinich (D-OH) today announced a Domestic Policy Subcommittee hearing entitled "Are 'Superweeds' an Outgrowth of USDA Biotech Policy? (Part II)." The hearing will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 30, 2010 in room 2203 Rayburn House Office Building.

□

The hearing will continue to evaluate USDA biotechnology regulatory policy, with particular respect to genetically engineered, herbicide-resistant crops and the environmental impact of the evolution of herbicide resistant weeds.

The hearing will be webcast live at domesticpolicy.oversight.house.gov. Part 1 of this hearing is here.

#